

KETO-ONCOLOGICAL SERVICES

Keto-Oncological Services, LLC, is willing to donate the following services upon request. To further the mission of RSG1, we request that you consider making donations at the suggested levels to RSG1 which can be made on our donations page: at on the RSG1 website at <http://www.rsg1foundation.com>. To obtain these services, you will also have to complete and deliver our non-disclosure agreement and have your doctor complete and deliver our physician referral form or send a letter that states that you are interested in receiving services and are waiving the right and are releasing Samra R. Savioz, Keto-Oncological Consulting Services LLC. And the RSG1 Foundation from any liability as we are not prescribing but are only offering assistance and support and information and are not medical doctors nor do we profess to be medical doctors.

Services:

1. 30 minute initial telephone consultation.
2. In-home Keto cooking consultation.
3. E-mail and phone communication with you, your physician, and other members of your medical team regarding keto diet.
4. Text messaging services including daily ketone and glucose maintenance and monitoring.
5. Professional training instruction of your registered dietician or registered nutritionist.
6. Video conferencing, conferencing calls and other participation in your treatment team communications.

Suggested Donation Levels. After the 30 minute initial telephone consultation, the following are our suggested tax-deductible donation levels depending upon the amount of consultative services: (1) up to four hours, $1,000; (2) four to eight hours, $2,000; (3) eight to twelve hours, $3,000, and (4) each additional four hours, $1,000. We can also assist you with fund raising ideas and will keep you informed of the fund raising events which we hold. Although Keto-Oncological Services LLC is donating its consulting services, if you reside more than 50 miles outside of the Pittsburgh area, you will have to make arrangements with them to cover travel, lodging and other expenses of any in-home services or training services outside the Pittsburgh area.